FOREWORD

We have just gone through a climactic year in the life of Ellendale State Teachers College. Fortunately, our school is still open for business. We of the staff wish to thank everyone--students, teachers, and private citizens--who have done so much to keep our college open.

We hope that you are pleased with the 1963 SNITCHER and that in later years you will frequently page through it with many fond memories.

DEDICATION

To ROBERT T. SCHONBERGER

with affection, gratefulness, and respect
--from the students and alumni of Ellendale State Teachers College.

B.S., Kansas State Teachers College,
Pittsburg, 1940; M.S., Kansas State
College, Pittsburg, 1940; Ed.D.,
University of Wyoming, 1952.

The Ellendale State Teachers College has made great strides during the last few years; and although many individuals and groups have made major contributions to the improvement of the image of the College, the student body through individual and cooperative effort has helped to re-cast this image in an unusually commendable manner. Its assistance in brightening the ESTC image has come about through the organization and conduct of numerous activities, its concern for the welfare of the College, and its representation of the College in a scholarly manner.

I should like to take this opportunity to express the appreciation of the faculty and the administration for the support of the student body in numerous ways. It has been a real pleasure to note the achievements of individuals and groups of students. May I take this opportunity to wish each of you continued success during the remainder of your college career.

The main function of the Student Council is to represent the student body. One of the council members represents the Industrial Arts Department; another the Secondary Education Department; another the Elementary Education Department; and two members are elected at large from the student body.

The purposes of the Student Council are: to promote and foster a spirit of co-operation between the faculty and the student body, and to promote student participation in the management of student activities and in the governing of affairs pertinent to the interests and general welfare of the College.

The Council's activities include conducting the orientation activities for freshmen, sponsoring the spring formal, selecting eligible candidates for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," and managing the Student Union.

DORM COUNCIL

SEATED: Maureen Maier, vice-president; Andrea Evert, secretary-treasurer; Carol Ylitalo, president. STANDING: Mrs. Young, Dean of Women; Gloria Rowerdink, representative; Maureen Parrow, representative.

The Girls' Dorm Council consists of the House President, the Vice-President, the Secretary-treasurer, and two Floor Representatives.

With the exception of the Floor Representatives, the council is elected by the entire girls' dorm. The Council has various duties and responsibilities, some of which are: handling problems of conduct, taking over in the dean's absence, and promoting social life within the dormitory.

Let's hit it Dean!

It only takes one Russ!

Let's have a good one, Curt!

Don't smile so much, Bill!
